To Get Fat.

Some individuals are constitutionally thin, but it is an exceptional case that will not respond to proper "get fat" treatment, which consists in moderate exercise, good things to eat and plenty of refreshing sleep. Raw eggs are fattening. Drink plenty of water. Blue pencil the fretting habit. Get out of doors every day and sleep at least eight or nine hours every night.

More Elegant.

"What you have," said Dr. Newman, "is just a common cold, and all you need is a good sweat."

"Sir," cried Miss Blugore haughtily, "I beg pardon! It's a fashionable cold, and what you need is a good perspiration."—Philadelphia Press.

Not Happily Put.

"There have been times in my life," said he gloomily, "when I was tempted to commit suicide."

"Oh, well," she said, "it's no use to grieve over the past. We can all look back and see where we've made mistakes."—Baltimore News.

Chip sticks to Old Block.

Tommy Twaddles—Oh, I don't want to go to school.

Pa Twaddles—But don't you want a good education?

Tommy Twaddles (sagittarily)—No, pa; I'd rather grow up to be just like you—Tit-Bits.

GRANITEVILLE.

The business meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. T. R. McLean.

The Unwritten Law.

A man's home is his castle and any person who may invade it should meet with forcible ejection. The viper who will steal the love of the wife of a man and wreck his home, should be dealt with according to the unwritten law of nature. No jury will convict a man who thus protects the honor of his home. There have been many cases of this character of late and in every case the verdict has been justifiable homicide. Why such a one escape the punishment they deserve? Society should be washed clean of the social parasites that hang like leeches on its skirts. In "The Unwritten Law" which will be presented at the opera house tonight, Dec. 11th a powerful story of heart interest is unfolded and your verdict will be the same everywhere this powerful drama has been produced, that "It is the best play of recent times." A comedy vein runs through the entire play and relieves the more emotional portions of the production. This is supplied by an old comedian who expresses his emotions on a clarinet; a spinster who lures men (maybe) and two of the liveliest young light comedians you have ever seen. Seats now selling.
